Through Iris' Eyes

"I love Purim," said Rabbi Sniderman. Well apparently, many of us do. Over the past six years that I have been a member at Temple Shalom, the best Purim events have been created by our own Marlene Honigstein. My consistent thought that I share with Marlene is: "you manage to turn straw into gold". She is appreciated for her talent of creating so much from not so much. I am writing this pre-Purim anticipating "Live from Shushan" this Wednesday evening. I honestly cannot wait to see the Megillah unfold by our own congregants with live music, dancing, comedy and, of course, hamantaschen.

So why do so many of us love Purim, of all the Jewish celebrations and major holidays? Simply stated, because it's fun and thought provoking. Rabbi Jon Spira-Savett teaches us that the Megillah shows the Jews wrestling with identity through the names they take, how much they reveal about their background, and how they assert power.

He adds: there is the broader theme of appearance and reality. This is why Purim is celebrated with masks and costumes. So much in the Megillah is disordered, in a world where few know God. We fight hate and destruction by bringing each other dessert and supporting people who do not have enough.

The themes in the Megillah are unsettling. We deal with them through comedy. We overpower Haman by making him silly, turning him into pastry, and substituting our shouts for his name. The Megillah is the founding event in Jewish humor. Think about how much Jewish comedy is about outwitting authority, outwitting the outside world, women outwitting men.

This year, Larry Wallace reported that the Ritual Committee will ask Temple Shalom members to support Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger. I hope you participated and enjoyed Purim this year.

One more mention…thank you Erv Margulis, Gloria Rodetsky, the Sisterhood Oneg Teams and the Ritual Committee Event Team. The Oneg and Kiddush on the last two weekends of March in honor of the visiting Rabbis were fabulous!

Please add my Temple email address to your contacts to use for Temple-related matters - thank you.

Work With Your Board

Mark Rosow, Second Vice President

As 2nd Vice-President of Temple Shalom, according to Article V, Paragraph C of the By-Laws, the position of Vice President (either 1st or 2nd Vice-President) is as follows: "In their constituted numerical order, the Vice-Presidents, in the absence or disability of the President, shall perform the duties and exercise the powers and authority of the President, but not longer than and until the next Annual election and installation by the Congregation of a New President." A Vice President is present to act in the place of the President, when necessary, and assume any other responsibilities the President may request of that individual.

Two years ago, I was asked to become a member of the By-Laws Committee while a Board Trustee. In 2015, I was appointed by the President as Chairperson for that year. As 2nd Vice President, I have agreed to continue as Chairperson for 2016.

In general, By-Laws dictate the operating standards and procedures that an organization will follow throughout its life as a business entity. It outlines what the organization can and cannot do. An organization's By-Laws will likely be more complex the larger the organization, but typically By-Laws contain the following: (1) Identifying information (Name, Purpose, Principal Place of Business), (2) Number of Trustees and organization officers authorized for the organization and their duties, (3) Procedures for Trustee and organization meetings (including frequency, location and protocol), (4) Procedure for organization record-keeping and (5) Procedure for amending By-Laws and (6) Rules on approval of contracts, loans, checks, and other types of organization resolutions, (7) Annual meeting and special meetings of the organization. The By-Laws may include additional procedures and information that may be required given the type of corporation or organization.

By-Laws are complex documents and are meant to comply with tax and legal requirements of the state and IRS. By-Laws are not meant to be added to or amended on a casual basis. There generally needs to be a substantial reason to add to or amend By-Laws. The Temple By-Laws do provide a detailed process for any proposed new By-Law or Amendment to be adopted. The procedure for By-Law additions or Amendments is set forth in Article XII entitled "Amendments" in the Temple By-Laws (revised January 21, 2016). Any proposed By-Law addition or amendment should be accompanied with a detailed statement as to the reason(s) that the change should be adopted. It will be reviewed by the By-Law Committee and the Congregant will be informed of its status. Briefly, the sequence for adopting a By-Law add-on or Amendment is as follows:

1. Proposals are to be delivered to the Chairperson by Oct 1st prior to the Annual General Meeting (AGM). The Committee generally meets from June through October.
2. All proposals will be reviewed by the By-Law Committee and those that are approved for further action will be presented to the Board of Trustees at its November Board Meeting for approval. Those Proposals that are approved by the Board will then be brought before the Congregation at the AGM for final enactment.
3. Lastly, any proposal made after Oct.1 may be presented to the Congregation for approval at the AGM if it first qualifies under Article XII, Amendments, Paragraph A of the Temple By-Laws.

Finally, if any Congregant has any questions about By-Laws in general, the current Temple By-Laws, or any of its procedures, please feel free to contact me.

Shalom,

Mark

Sisterhood Strong women working for a strong Temple

As we March along to Spring, Sisterhood celebrates the lengthening days and leafing trees by holding events that lighten our spirits and stimulate our minds. This month's Rosh Chodesh meeting celebrated the New Moon and New Month Adar II. [This year is Leap Year so there are two Adars.] I presented "Rosh Chodesh and the Women Movement." Jean Gaull conducted a calming meditation and everyone enjoyed the afternoon. Marsha Riefs heads a Rosh Chodesh Planning Committee. To join, please contact Marsha at Marshariefs@yahoo.com.

Our well-attended March Luncheon/Meeting featured the mesmerizing women's acapella group "Women in Harmony." The group was great...even courageous...as they encouraged us to sing along several times. Congrats to Marlene Sontz for another excellent presentation.

For our final Carol Cohan Concert, Mizette Fuenzalida conducted an ensemble of musicians she formed known as "The Camerata String Ensemble of Central Florida". The concert began with Mozart and ended with “Fiddler on the Roof” and was enjoyed by an audience seated in the round. Classical music lovers… we hope to book the Camerata for an upcoming Sisterhood concert.

Upcoming Events

- The Community Outreach Committee chaired by Sylvia Elinoff now numbers 41 participating members and will hold 11 Passover presentations at residences and rehab centers in The Villages beginning Tuesday, April 5 and ending Friday, April 15.
- Be sure to attend services Friday evening, April 8: Sisterhood Shabbat. A special feature will be the presentation of our WRJ Charter and Ohr Ami Award by Madi Hoesten, WRJ Southeast Region President.

Shalom,
Miriam Jersky, President

The Cameras String Ensemble performed as a benefit for the Cohan Music Fund. The audience was appreciative of the lively music selections conductor Mizzette Fuenzalida chose. The seating was in the European style of performing in the round.The audience was up close and personal.

Stuart and Susan Feinberg, Iris Holtz and Miriam Jersky presented $1000 to the Villages Honor Flight Organization. Funds were raised by Sisterhood 's "Villages Salute the Songs of Jerry Herman " produced by the Skipper. This was the first time Temple Shalom worked with Villages Honor Flight. The Villages Honor Flight has sent more than 500 Villages Area Veterans to be honored with a trip to the World War II monument and other Washington, D.C. sights and a proper homecoming. Stuart was a Guardian to a Veteran in 2015 and will take another fight with a Veteran in 2016. Gerry Prezioso was a Guardian in the past. Sam Rittberg will be taking a flight in May.

Insider K. Drew Shaheen shared her up close and personal experiences with Presidents and First Ladies Carter, Reagan, Bush and Clinton. Attendees feasted their eyes on mementos and artifacts from her 20 years of volunteer work in the White House.

Brotherhood great men doing great things

The day was clear, the track was fast, and 27 eager handicappers were ready to play. Temple Shalom Brotherhood's 4th annual "Day at the Races" was a run away. We stood at attention as the National Anthem was played and "Let the races begin": a sumptuous buffet lunch, reserved seating in the club house and an exciting race card. The fifth race was announced on the big tote board and dedicated to Temple Shalom Brotherhood. Number 8 "Venetian" was the favorite and we played HER to win. She performed beautifully and crossed the finish line #1. We had winners and losers but all had a good time. We will do it again next year.

Casino Night report: 324 admission tickets, 96 volunteer tickets and the largest crowd ever to attend Brotherhood Casino Night. My sincere thanks to all of you who helped make this such a huge success. February 18, 2017 is reserved for the next great Casino Night.

Attention all paid up members of Brotherhood! Spousal Appreciation Breakfast is May 9th. This is our opportunity to show our appreciation to our wives and significant others who support us and allow us to do what we do. We will have professional entertainment, surprises and a bountiful breakfast. (warning; DO NOT NOT ATTEND.)

Shalom,

Ralph Coster, President

ED-JEW-CATION...You Can Quote Me on This

It's not what you say but how you say it? Yes, but sometimes, it is just WHAT you say. Following are some well recognized words of wisdom that were said by or about Jews. Who said what? We'll call this "Quotrivia" – or maybe "QuotJewvia". Answers can be found at the bottom of the article. Ten correct is really good! Here we go!

1. In Jewish history there are no coincidences.
2. It's good to be the king.
3. If I am not for me, who is for me, and if I am only for myself, who am I? And if not now, when?
4. No matter how bad things get, you've got to go on living, even if it kills you!
5. There's no conscience. Jews invented the conscience.
6. A verbal agreement is not worth the paper it's written on.
7. I've been rich and I've been poor – and believe me rich is better.
8. Pessimism is a luxury that a Jew can never allow himself.
9. There are two things that are infinite – the universe and man's stupidity – and I am not sure about the universe.
10. The legend engraved on the face of the Jewish nickel – on the body of every Jewish child – not "In God We Trust", but "Someday you'll be a parent and you'll know what it's like!"
11. If I am I because you are you, and you are you because I am I, then I am not I and you are not you. But if I am I because I am I and you are you because you are you, then I am I and you are you.
12. Politics is the art of looking for trouble, finding it everywhere, diagnosing it incorrectly, and applying the wrong remedies.
13. It's good to SHUT UP sometimes.
14. The Jew is the symbol of eternity. He is the one who for so long has guarded the prophetic message and transmitted it to mankind. A people such as this can never disappear. The Jew is eternal. He is the emblem of eternity.
15. Let me tell you something that we Israelis have against Moses. He took 40 years through the desert in order to bring us to the one spot in the Middle East that has no oil.
16. I simply can't build my hopes on a foundation of confusion, misery and death. I think peace and tranquility will return again.
17. I'm very proud of being Jewish. It means I have a good work ethic, and you get Jewish humor and you're allowed to tell Jewish jokes.
18. Money is better than poverty, if only for financial reasons.
19. All things are mortal, but the Jew. All other forces pass, but he remains. What is the secret of his immortality?
20. Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day, teach a man to fish and feed him for a lifetime.
21. BONUS quote: "I'll have what she's having!"

And the answers are: 1. Elie Weisel (author) 2. Mel Brooks (comedian, writer, author, etc.) 3. Hillel (Rabbi, from Ethics of the Fathers) 4. Sholom Aleichem (author) 5. Adolph Hitler (dictator) 6. Samuel Goldwyn (film producer) 7. Sophie Tucker (vaudeville singer) 8. Golda Meir (Israeli P.M.) 9. Albert Einstein (mathematician, etc.) 10. Philip Roth (author) 11. Rabbi Menachem Mendel of Kotzk 12. Groucho Marx (comedian, actor, etc.) 13. Marcel Marceau (mime extraordinaire) 14. Leo Tolstoy (Russian author) 15. Golda Meir (Israeli P.M.) 16. Anne Frank (diarist) 17. Daniel Radcliffe (Harry Potter actor) 18. Woody Allen (actor, comedian, author, musician, etc.) 19. Mark Twain (author) 20. Maimonides (medieval Jewish philosopher and astronomer). 21.

Mrs. Carl Reiner (in “When Harry Met Sally, 198)

Did you get 20 right? Or 19? If so, let me know and the smarty (ies) will be announced next month... and you can quote me on that!

Who Do You Call About Advertising in the SHALOM?

I'm Terri Behar and I'm the Temple member you contact when you want to place an ad in the SHALOM! When I lived in Indiana, I was an advertising executive for Senior Life Newspapers… a monthly newspaper designed for people 50 and older. What great training for The Villages!

I was in charge of all the advertising for Ft. Wayne, Indiana, and surrounding counties. Ft. Wayne is the second largest city in Indiana with more than 350 thousand people, so it was no small job. Senior Life also covered all of Northern Indiana, Indianapolis, Columbus, Ohio, and some of Kentucky.

I was allowed to design ads in all these papers and frequently did! I had no training or previous experience with advertising when I was hired for this job. With my artistic and creative talent, I was a natural and soon became their top sales person! After 20+ years I retired and we moved to Florida.

After we joined the Temple, I noticed that we had ads running in our monthly bulletin. I asked if I could help with the advertising and the rest is history. I did help the Temple develop a better contract and display to show advertisers the size that their ads will be. It's been an interesting five years and I enjoy meeting everyone.

If you know someone or if you are interested in placing any advertising, please let me know at artbyterri2@gmail.com. I don't have a composing department anymore so if you want to advertise, please send me your ad already put together as a .jpeg file. Thanks so much.

And please support our Advertisers!
