Through Iris' Eyes

Hot! Hot! Hot! That's what the weather is in Florida for those of us who are not snowbirds. But, it's a mekhaye (Yiddish for "pleasure") inside Temple Shalom. So, plan to attend all the upcoming events and activities. The Philharmonic Concerts are scheduled for July and August. Thank you Susan Feinberg, along with Brad Koozman, for arranging these two events. For those who are not familiar with The Villages Philharmonic, this will give you a sampling of their talent. Tickets are available at the Temple office.

July also offers the Prayer Service for Peace on July 19, 6:30 PM at Temple Shalom. This is a purely spiritual event to pray with those of other faiths. Our world can surely use prayer. Almost everyday there is an attack somewhere near and far.

Our female members can participate in Rosh Chodesh on Sunday, July 10, 2:00 PM. Marsha Riefs is the Facilitator. This month come and learn about the month of Tammuz and the meaning of Tisha B'AV. Also, come prepared to participate in creating your own family tree.

Please read the Congregational Email for additional happenings in July and August. There is so much to get involved with. I encourage you to use the Gift Card Program. Forget the airline miles, forget the credit card points; consider the gift card proceeds a donation to Temple Shalom.

Purchase a gift card for all of your shopping needs, gifts for family, friends, the handyman, helpers, drivers, etc. And, please remember to tell your friends and neighbors to stop by Temple Shalom if they need a gift. You do not have to be a member to purchase gift cards! We need to prevent Jerry & Karen Prezioso from getting bored. So stop by the Temple lobby on Wednesdays (9:30-12:30) or Thursdays (10-2)...or call them at home. I hear they will be selling gift cards on Friday nights before Services. Check that out too.

In case you haven't noticed, our Security Chairperson, Bernie Goldstein, arranged a Security Guard at Services every Friday evening. The Board Members unanimously voted for this as a precaution. Please be prepared to see an officer as you enter Temple for Friday night Services.

In case you haven't heard, this is the last electronic Shalom. Look for your paper edition in your mailboxes in August. Thank you Derick for editing this month and the Office volunteers for helping with the distribution.

Last but not least, I hope you are planning to attend the Mid-Year Meeting on July 21, at 7:00 PM. This is the time to hear about the accomplishments of the past six months, gain financial insights, and hear about long-range plans.

See you in Shul,
Iris

Sisterhood: Strong Women working for a Strong Temple

This is my first Sisterhood article as Acting Sisterhood President. I would like to begin by telling everyone how honored I am that Sisterhood has the trust and confidence in me to perform my office while our current President is on leave. Everything that Sisterhood does could not be done without the armies of volunteers who make each event happen. An organization is only as strong as the people who support it...and we are "Strong women working for a strong Temple."

This year we finished our busy season with a bang. On May 1 two buses went to the Straz Center in Tampa and saw the musical "Beautiful." Many of us felt that this musical was the best one yet! Thank you, Sandy Solomon, Fundraising VP, for Chairing this event.

On May 2 at our Sisterhood Meeting, Marlene Sontz, Programming VP, introduced "The Plant Lady," from Fernview Farm, who talked about what we need to do to keep our landscaping healthy.

Chai Mitzvah study groups were held on May 2 and 26. The topic for this month was "Gratitude" and a lively discussion was held on each day

On May 10, Susan Feinberg led another fun-filled Shopping Trip to the Florida Mall.

Our Book Club, chaired by Debbie Dessert, discussed the book Circling the Sun on May 12 at the Belvedere Library.

On May 15 and June 5 Marsha Riefs did a beautiful job leading the Rosh Chodesh Celebration. Each month a different topic is highlighted and we welcome everyone to join Marsha in this spirited, educational and spiritual celebration.

May 16 ushered in another fabulous Mah Jong Tournament, chaired by Rita Montroy. Over $4000 was raised. It takes many hard-working women to run this tournament and we thank you all for helping to make it such a success.

Our final concert of the season was a Latin Fusion Concert with Hector Garrido, Carolyn Hoffman and Latin performers from the Miami area. Thank you Susan Feinberg, Concert Director, for providing the Sisterhood and Temple with such an array of wonderful concerts.

Our Sisterhood Board Meeting was held on May 23 at 10:00 in the Rabbi's Study. All Sisterhood members are welcome to attend.

On June 6 at our Membership Meeting we had a small but lively gathering. We approved the 2016 Amendments to the By-Laws, did some special singing, reminiscent of our camp days, and heard an informative speaker, Bryan Lifsky from Seniors vs Crime, who educated us about scams in the tri-county area and how to avoid them.

Brotherhood: Great Men doing Great Things...

"Guardians of the Torah"

Moses Maimonides in the 12th century tallied up 613 commandments in the Five Books of the Torah.

The Talmud says regarding: The first Commandment, Mitzvot #1. "Be fruitful and multiply" The last Commandment; #613 "It is incumbent on each Jew to write His or Herself's own Torah."

It makes sense the First and Last Commandment is about propagation; the Human species and God's Torah.

Recently, we celebrated Shavuot, Brotherhood has instituted a fund to "Write your own Torah". We are fortunate to own 3 Torah's that are in need of repair. They range in age from 85 to 100+ years. Their Origin; Romania, Latvia, and Poland.

We will bring to Temple a Sofer Scribe, who will educate, clean and repair our Torahs.

He will invite each participant to place their hand on his hand as he inks, with a feather quill, on the Torah. That action constitutes the Mitzvah of writing your own Torah.

We the "Guardians of the Torah" hope you will pledge your personal Mitzvah to the legacies of Torah- Marvin Jasper Torah Fund*.

A minimum pledge of# $25.00 would be appreciated.

Ralph Coster
Brotherhood President

In association with Brotherhood's "Guardians of the Torah" for the repair & maintenance of our Torah Heritage.*
